BY HAWAIIAN PRINCES

DURING THE SUMMER OF 1885, THREE YOUNG HAWAIIAN PRINCES
RODE THE WAVES AT THE MOUTH OF THE SAN LORENZO RIVER
ON REDWOOD PLANKS THEY ORDERED CUT IN THE SHAPE OF OLO SURFBOARDS BY THE LOCAL TIMBER MILL.

H.M. QUEEN KAPI'OLANI'S NEPHEWS:

H.R.H. PRINCE JONAH KŪHIŌ KALANIANA'OLE
H.R.H. PRINCE DAVID LA'AMEA KAHALEPOULI KĀWANANAKOA
H.R.H. PRINCE EDWARD ABNEL KELIAHONUI

WHILE ATTENDING ST. MATTHEW'S HALL MILITARY SCHOOL
IN SAN MATEO, STAYED DURING THEIR VACATIONS WITH THE SWAN FAMILY IN SANTA CRUZ AND STARTED A CRAZE BY BRINGING FOR THE FIRST TIME THE ROYAL HAWAIIAN SPORT
OF SURFING TO THE PACIFIC COAST OF THE AMERICAS.

A GIFT TO THE CITY OF SANTA CRUZ FROM THE KĀWANANAKOA AND MARIGNOLI FAMILIES.

HUI HOLOLIO A KALANIANA'OLE

- He inoa nou e Kalanian'ole
'O ka hui hololio o ka 'ehu kai

`Akahi o ka nani ua 'ike 'ia
I ka holo kainapu a nā lio

Ua like ma ka wai ānuenue
Ka pipi'o i ke alo a'o Ka'ala

Ke 'ala o ke koa lau li'ili'i
Ka ulu wela i ke kula o Leilehua

'O ka lihilihi 'ula o ka pā'ū
E pulelo ha'aheo lā i ka makani

Ka makani onaona o ka 'āina
'O ka hanu kēhau o ke kaona

Hea aku mākou ō mai 'oe
'O Kalanian'ole kou inoa

This is a name song for Kalaniana'ole
And the riding group of the sea spray

The beauty was seen
Of the prancing horses

They appear like the colors of the rainbow
Arching above Ka'ala

The fragrance small leaved koa
That arise on the plains of Leilehua

The red frill of their skirts
Fluttering proudly in the wind

The fragrant wind of the land
The dew laden fragrance of town

We call, you answer
Kalaniana'ole is your name.
