Section V. Beneficiary Consultation, Applicant Capacity and Land Use Benefit Analysis

Trust Lands represent a finite amount of land, with thousands of HHCA eligible beneficiaries awaiting an award under the Residential, Agricultural or Pastoral Homesteading program, as well as dozens of Homestead Associations controlled by HHCA Beneficiaries working on homestead based development projects:

As a result, the applicant acknowledges that part of the process of considering applications for trust lands should include the following:

1. Beneficiary Consultation

- a. A Notice of All Land Requests to License/Lease Hawaiian Home Lands for non-homesteading purposes should be sent to all Homestead Associations with an opportunity for beneficiaries of the trust to comment and provide input.
- b. All input received should be provided to the Hawaiian Homes Commission.

2. Applicant Capacity

- a. If a Nonprofit Organization – should be assessed by DHHL Kulia i ka Nuu capacity program to determine financial, programmatic, governance and leadership capacity and determine legal structure. Additional information may be required to be submitted to DHHL.
- b. If an Individual/Business – should be assessed by DHHL to determine financial and leadership capacity and legal structure. Additional information may be required to be submitted to DHHL.

3. Land Use Benefit Analysis

- a. The land requested should have a direct or significant indirect benefit to the trust or to the beneficiaries of the trust. Additional information may be required to be submitted to DHHL.
- b. The land requested should comply with the spirit and intent of Section 207(c) and Section 204(a)(2)/220.5 of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, as amended, by engaging beneficiary organizations. Additional information may be required to be submitted to DHHL to determine how Beneficiary Organizations are directly connected to the land request use.
