Describe how proposed land use request will have direct or significant indirect benefit to the Trust and/or its Beneficiaries (Applicants & Lessees): _____

The direct benefit of this land use as a renewable fuel farm is to provide a continued and guaranteed revenue stream to the Trust for at 20-60 years which will support DHHL's beneficiary programs. The use of this land for farming is consistent with It's present use and zoning, making the project most receptive to the community. The continued use of this land for farming will preserve the parcel with maximum flexibility and future homesteading opportunities. Currently the project will create stable long term employment with 30-35 new jobs. This use will as maintain the open space character of the land, preserving current Topography, view planes and habitat. Anaergia will also remediate the lands which have been fallow for extended period and protect them from further erosion.

The following authorized representative submits this request for use of Hawaiian home lands under non-homesteading purposes and acknowledges that:
