Board Alive! Best Practices for Nonprofit Board Governance

Effective board governance is critical to ensuring that a nonprofit organization delivers on its mission, manages its resources effectively, and maintains its reputation. This half-day workshop provides board members with tools to help them become more engaged and informed and to fully understand the commitment of serving on a nonprofit board. Topics covered are:

- The Nonprofit Sector Context
- Essential Board Functions
- Core Legal & Financial Responsibilities of the Board and Risk Management Strategies
- Dynamic Teamwork: The Board/Staff Relationship
- How to Build a Strong Board
- Creating Organizational Quality (Board Self-Assessment and Strategic Planning)
- Resources for Boards and Organizations

Trainer: Jennifer Creed, Hawai'i Alliance for Nonprofit Organizations (HANO)

WHEN

Saturday, March 21, 2015
Check-in starts at 11:30 AM
