Homestead Self Help Program Orientation Workshop Piilani Mai Ke Kai II, Kanehili II & III Projects

REGISTRATION FORM

The Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement (CNHA) assists groups of DHHL waitlist families in building new affordable homes throughout the state through the Homestead Self Help Program. CNHA is planning to provide financial literacy, construction technical assistance and more to build 10 additional homes in Piilani Mai Ke Kai, Anahola, Kauai and up to 20 additional homes in Kanehili, Kapolei, Oahu.

CNHA is conducting orientation workshops on Oahu and Kauai about the Homestead Self Help Program and upcoming projects. Please complete one registration form for each attendee. Complete and fax to 808.596.8156 or e-mail to info@hawaiiancouncil.org. Also register by calling Terri Lemmer by phone at 808.596.8155.

Note: Participants may be photographed during workshops. CNHA reserves the right to publish these photographs.
