As provided in Section 10-3-8, Hawaii Administrative Rules, I, _____ (please print), hereby apply to succeed to the application rights of an applicant who died without designating a successor to his or her application. Section 10-3-8, Hawaii Administrative Rules, states, in part, that if an applicant dies without designating a successor, a relative as described above may request to succeed to the deceased applicant's application rights. The Commission may designate a successor from among those who have filed a request to succeed; provided it does so in the following order:

- 1) Spouse; or
- 2) If no spouse requests, then a child; or
- 3) If none of the foregoing requests, then a grandchild; or
- 4) If none of the foregoing requests then, from among the following: a parent, a widow/widower of a child, a sibling, a widow/widower of a sibling, a niece or a nephew.

Once every calendar year, the department shall publish a notice setting forth a list of the names of all applicants whom the department has reason to believe have died without designating a successor and whose names do not appear in a list previously published by the department. Requests for succession to application rights shall be made to the department in writing not later than one hundred eighty days after the date of the last publication of the applicant's name; otherwise, the application will be canceled and the applicant's name shall be removed from the respective waiting list or lists, as the case may be. The Hawaiian Homes Commission, for good cause, may extend the time beyond one hundred eighty days in which requests for succession to an application may be made. DHHL recommends that any individual interested in requesting the Commission designate him or her to succeed to application rights review section 10-3-8, Hawaii Administrative Rules, in its entirety.

To request designation by the Commission, please complete the following and attach documents verifying your age, native Hawaiian ancestry and relationship to the deceased applicant. You may attach a copy of your homestead application in lieu of documents verifying your age and ancestry.
