MINIMUM QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS:

Basic Education/Experience Requirement:

Experience requiring the ability to read, comprehend and apply written directions, and a high degree of verbal skill, and the ability to perform arithmetic computations (addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, fractions and percentages). This experience may be met from part-time and/or unpaid work. There must, however, be evidence that participation was on a continuous basis but not necessarily on a full-time normal work basis. This requirement may also be met by possession of a high school diploma (or equivalent), with satisfactory completion of courses demonstrating knowledge of English grammar, spelling and punctuation and arithmetic.

General Experience:

One year of progressively responsible work experience which involved reading, comprehending, explaining and apply laws, rules, and other requirements; gathering and evaluating information from various sources; and taking appropriate action in accordance with established policies, procedures and guidelines. Such experience must have demonstrated knowledge of English grammar, spelling, basic arithmetic, and general office practices and procedures; and the ability to read and understand oral and written instructions; speak and write simply and directly, and perform a variety of clerical tasks.

Public Contact Experience:

One year of experience which involved meeting and dealing effectively with people, and which demonstrated the ability to establish and sustain positive relationships; provide and elicit pertinent information such as explaining and making sure people understood policies, procedures, rules, obligations, and requirements; and gaining the cooperation of others. The experience may be met from part-time and/or unpaid work.

NON-QUALIFYING EXPERIENCE:

Experience as a sales clerk, or any other work that did not involve establishing and sustaining positive relationships, and which did not involve providing and eliciting pertinent information as described above, but rather only involved brief exchanges of limited information, e.g., prices or direction information, does not qualify as acceptable Public Contact Experience.

Specialized Experience:

One year of progressively responsible work experience which involved receiving, examining and evaluating documents and supporting evidence for Hawaiian home lands homestead lease transactions. Such experience must have demonstrated a good working knowledge of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended; and departmental policies and procedures pertaining to Hawaiian Home Lands homestead lease transactions and successorship.

License Requirement:

Applicants must possess a valid license to drive in the State of Hawaii.

Special Requirement:

Applicants must be commissioned as a notary public in government service shortly after appointment.

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

QUALITY OF EXPERIENCE:

Possession of the required number of years of experience will not in itself be accepted as proof of qualification for a position. The applicant's overall experience must have been of such scope and level of responsibility as to conclusively demonstrate that he/she has the ability to perform the duties of the position for which he/she is being considered.

Knowledge of:

The Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended (as it relates to leases; philosophy, goals and functions of the Hawaiian Home Lands program; Hawaiian Home Lands homestead lease transaction and successorship qualification; sources of information for birth, death, marriage and other records commonly used in determining genealogy; terminology and documents commonly used in lease transactions; terms and conditions of lease agreements; and appropriate agencies to contact when investigating alleged ordinance/lease violations.

Ability to:

Review, understand and explain the basic terms and conditions of a lease and loan agreement; read and interpret property maps, review the recommendations of other staff members; coordinate the processing of lease transactions; handle changing priorities, and provide technical advice and assistance to other staff members.

Legal Authorization to Work Requirement: The State of Hawaii requires all persons seeking employment with the government of the State shall be citizens, nationals, or permanent resident aliens of the United States, or eligible under federal law for unrestricted employment in the United States.
