Q&A

DEPARTMENT OF HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS
820 ISENBERG STREET
REDEVELOPMENT

August 15, 2019

Inquiry #1:

Q: RFP states Development Agreement for 65-year land lease.

- Is land to be lease at $1 per year?
- Can lease be extended to 75 years if required for financing?

Inquiry #2:

Q: RFP indicates developer participation in EIS approval process.
— Who will be responsible for preparation and ultimate submittal?

Inquiry #3:

Q: RFP enumerates target demographic specific to eligible native Hawaiians being defined as individuals having at least 50% Hawaiian blood quantum...but also denotes providing independent living facilities for kupuna, student or faculty housing as well as homeless beneficiaries.

- Do all residents need to satisfy blood quantum requirements?
- If yes, can this requirement be waived should developer be unable to fill available units?

Inquiry #4:

Q: RFP indicates proposal security deposit / bid bond in an amount equal to at least 5% of estimated construction cost.

- What is the purpose of this security since no MOA has yet been negotiated or signed?

Inquiry #5:

Q: RFP references AG 103D General Conditions and DHHL General Conditions.

– Which controls in event of conflict between the two documents?
